Appeals

Ofqual are still to confirm whether centres can divulge the centre assessment grade and rank to students following the publication of results.

-Once they have received their result, students will have the right to: ask their centre to check whether they made an error when submitting a centre assessment grade and including them in the centre's rank order

-raise a complaint to their centre if they have evidence of bias or that they were discriminated against; they could also pass such evidence on to the exam board who could investigate for potential malpractice

-appeal against the following centre decisions: not to seek any information the awarding body holds that would be needed for an appeal; and/or not to appeal to the awarding body.

Students cannot appeal against their school or college's centre assessment grades and position in the rank order for the following reasons:

-the appeal would have to be undertaken by someone better placed than the student's teachers to judge the grade they would likely have received if the exams had taken place – in the unique circumstances of this summer Ofqual do not believe there is any such person

-an appeal would also require students to have access to the information their school or college put forward before being submitted to exam boards. This may compromise the reliability of this year's approach.

-if one student successfully appealed against their position in the rank order, it would have negative implications for other students who would, in turn, need to be given an opportunity to appeal.

Autumn Exam Series

Students may have the opportunity to resit exams in the Autumn series. GCSE examinations will start on Monday 2nd November and finish on Monday 23rd November. Further information will be given on results day.

We are still waiting for an update on BTECs.

Please do not hesitate to contact myself, Mr Matthews or Ms Hamilton if you have any queries.

Yours sincerely,

Mr C Maunder
Assistant Headteacher
